

The Newspaper

SATURDAY, 26 SEPTEMBER 2026

Today's headlines converge on the critical intersection of digital safety and technological governance, as Alabama secures a substantial settlement from TikTok for child protection, a developer addresses cybersecurity concerns in app audits, and new directives emerge for transforming state enterprise systems, highlighting the growing focus on responsible technology implementation and oversight.

. . .

ECONOMY AND POLITICS

Directives Trained for State Enterprise System Transformation

GRANMA

Training for executives began Thursday at the Higher School of State and Government Cadres to prepare for the implementation of ongoing economic and social transformations. The program targets presidents of Business Groups and Government Boards.

Granma →

TECHNOLOGY

Alabama Says TikTok to Pay Up to $300 Million for Kid Safety

BLOOMBERG TECHNOLOGY

Alabama's attorney general announced TikTok agreed to pay up to $300 million and implement new user protection measures to settle the state's child-safety lawsuit that was set to go to trial Monday. The settlement addresses concerns about TikTok's practices regarding minors' safety on the platform.

Bloomberg Technology →

Developer Resolves False-Positive Cyber Safety Flag in App Audit

R/CLAUDE

A developer shared a workflow to resolve false-positive cyber safety flags in Opus 5.5 during defensive app audits. By sanitizing offensive security terminology through a secondary model, they successfully bypassed safety blocks while maintaining technical context for defensive remediation.

r/claude →

DAILY READINGS

USD/BRL	2026-09-25	5.1821
USD/CNY	2026-09-25	6.7132
USD/EUR	2026-09-25	0.877
USD/JPY	2026-09-25	157.59
USD/MXN	2026-09-25	17.6989

READ ONLINE